RE: Lessons/Coaching/Clinics/Shows/Helmet Rule

Now that we have finally made it past the holidays and almost to temperatures in the mid teens, I thought I would get somewhat organized for March-December 2011. The purpose of this letter is to discuss lesson schedule, coaching at shows, show schedule, clinics and helmet rule.

During the winter months the schedule gets thrown around a bit because of the cold, snow and lack of trying to ride in the deep freeze. As spring approaches, I will go back to my usual schedule at each farm and my haul ins will rejoin me at my farm and others. Only a few places are affected by the schedule change.

Monday: Jacquirei Oaks 1:00-3:15
 Bound Tree Farm: 3:30-8:45
Tuesday: Carriage House: 12:45-4:45
 Sleipner Stables: 6:15-9:00
Wednesday: Steepleview
 JO
 BTF
 Fortuna
 P. Sodahl 6:30
Thursday: CH 12:00-1:00
 North Brook Eventing Center 1:00- until done
 CH after NBEC if needed
Friday: Open for day clinics
Saturday: Sleipner Stables or Clinics
Sunday: Clinics

The above times obviously alter from week to week depending on the number of students at each farm. This just gives you an idea of where I am going during the week, and the approximate start and ending times. I work all of my training horses in the early am at my farm. Students are also welcome to haul in at my place if so desired.

I am also available for coaching at horse shows. I will send an email out approximately 3-4 weeks before the horse show to see who is interested. This is on a first come basis, as I can only coach so many per day. Please let me know as soon as you can.

Here is a list of shows that I thought we might want to consider. Hopefully I covered most of the potential eventing shows for most riders. If not please fill me in. Riders interested in dressage shows I did not include Chicago or Silverwood.
